SEX SCANDAL EXCLUSIVE

All UK publications have recently been gagged by an injunction put in place by the Captain of an English sports team. The national newspapers seem convinced that this is John Terry the England football captain but according to our correspondent in Calcutta (former winger Martin Price) the national have got it wrong.

The rumours over there are that the lady involved is model Miranda Kerr (pictured right). She recently featured on YouTube with David Kiely, an Australian banker who was busted looking at pictures of a scantily-clad Kerr on his computer while a colleague was doing a live television interview behind him.

The other person involved is our own captain Ben Richards who is rumoured to have spent a steamy weekend with Kerr in a foreign villa, it's not clear if this was Doug Hyden's villa in Portugal or Rolf Matthew's villa in Thailand!

There is no shread of evidence to support this rumour but we feel it is significant that neither Richards nor Kerr have issued a denial. We leave you our readers to make up you own mind

A WORD FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Break-in update

As most of you will be aware we were broken in to yet again at the end of last year, with unusual circumstances.

As after all break In's we informed the Police and, while the they have been investigating, we have not been able to advise you of the situation .They have now concluded their investigations.

To avoid any confusion or rumors, these are the facts. A set of club keys were stolen from a club member, used to un-arm the alarm and unlawfully access the club. The safe was broken into (cash taken) and wines and spirits stolen. It was then made to look like an actual break-in! (some damage) The keys were then returned to the club member, with out them knowing (alibi checked by Police and verified).

It was soon worked out who had taken the keys and the Police were advised. Some of our stolen items were recovered by the Police and the thief was arrested.

However it has been decided by the CPS that there is not enough evidence to prosecute!!

As disappointed as we are at the outcome, unless there is any further evidence this matter is now closed.

Mark - Chairman

Message from the Committee

The last year has been a difficult year for the club in financial terms. As you know we have had several break-ins and thefts and recently a large number of games have been cancelled due to the bad weather. We are now due to pay our annual insurance of around £3,000 and have been told that our Gas and Electricity will increase by £1,500 this year.

So it's more important than ever that all members make every effort to support social events, raffles and promote use of the room to any friends or family having any type of celebration.
