January 2010

WE MIGHT ACTUALLY PLAY ON SATURDAY!!

After a frustrating month of ice and snow lets hope we can get back to rugby this weekend. The 1st team are due to play St Leonard's in the league and the 2nd team against Five Ways Old Eds.

WINNERS OF THE XMAS HAMPER DRAW

Winner of big hamper - M.W. Shingler (big Macs Grandma)
Second prize - small hamper - Bommer
Third Prize - Cyril Farrow (Faz's Dad)
Fourth Prize - Mr & Mrs Davies (c/o Sally)
Fifth Prize - Eric Coates (Nigel's Dad)

It's good to see lots of the prizes went to players families. A big thank you to Frances Osbourn for the idea, Helen Chandler for printing the tickets and everyone else for donating some super prizes and selling enough tickets to raise more than £200 for the club.

Casa Da Rocha

This delightful three bedroomed villa is set amongst quiet countryside inland from the coast at Olhao in the central Algarve. Approximately 25 minutes from the airport at Faro, the villa is set in a 4000 sq mtr plot in the small village of Peral. The villa has gated access directly from a tarmac road to its front drive with ample parking space and is surrounded by its established garden. The village's 'gourmet' restaurant and internet café is only 100mtrs away.

The large entrance hall leads to the well equipped kitchen/dining room, with separate utility room with dishwasher and washing machine. The hall leads to the large lounge with television (base Sky UK service), patio doors leading to a covered terrace that overlooks the private pool. The master bedroom is a double with en suite bathroom. A further double plus a twin bedroom share a separate bathroom. Central heating and a wood burning enclosed fire are available in the winter months. A side terrace is enclosed and forms a yard with a barbeque, fixed table and seating for al-fresco dining.
